

WHAT IS AND WHAT'S THE USE OF THE TEMPORARY ACCESS CODE?

The Temporary Access Code is a unique identification number used by students to receive communications and access EDISU Piemonte's Online Help Desk. On this page, every student can request all of the EDISU benefits, check on requests' status, see the rankings, download receipts and certificates, and import or review their e-mail address or IBAN code.

You will need the Temporary Access Code to request your scholarship and every other benefit if you don't have the Italian SPID or CIE (Electronic ID).

WHO NEEDS IT?

The Temporary Access Code must be requested by International (EU and not-EU) students who:

- come for the first time in Italy to enroll to a piedmontese University (First Years)
- or regularly live in Italy, but don't possess a registered address in Italy. (Next Years) and don't have the Italian SPID or CIE (Electronic ID).

This Code stays functioning for a whole academic year, can be requested from July and remains usable until June 6th. For every further question, please check the FAQ document.

Please sign up and request your code here.

APPLICATION FOR 2025/2026

To apply for a scholarship, you must access the Online Help Desk and follow the instructions provided in the 2025-2026 Call for Applications.

Be careful!

- Since academic year 2024/25, each student may only send their own documentation. Joint shipments of parcels containing the documentation of several students are not accepted except in cases where two or more students are sisters or brothers.
- The Notice of Competition is also available in English.
