E.g. Mobility in a country of GROUP 2 → EU monthly amount = € 300 → EDISU deduction = € 300 → € 600 - € 300 = € 300/month.

In case of stay in Switzerland, Edisu will assess jointly with the University the eventual availability of contributions from the Swiss Government.

For Erasmus Traineeship projects, it will be deducted a sum corresponding to the share paid by the European Union, plus € 150.00 (see the table above).

In case of Extra-European destinations, there is no deduction from the amount of € 600,00. There might be exceptions for particular projects.

Any amount granted by European Union even with another bilateral agreement will be deducted from the monthly amount of €600.00, both for European and Extra-EU destinations, as certified by the University

8. CALCULATION OF THE AMOUNT OF ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTION

The additional contribution is initially estimated on the basis of the amount of months stated by the mobility contract. At the end of the mobility period, the contribution is recalculated on the basis of the number of days effectively spent abroad.

It will be assigned an amount of € 600,00 for each full month. From this amount, it will be deducted a sum depending on the European Country of destination (see the tables at paragraph 7). In case of Extra-European destinations, the eventual monthly deduction will be made only in particular cases according to the university rules about the mobility project

The eventual extension of duration of mobility period authorized by University, is not considered for the purpose of a recalculation of the amount. The total amount remains the one of the definitive ranking list.

In case of incomplete month, it will be calculated a value equal to the one of the complete monthly amount, divided by 30 days. Then this value will be multiplied by the number of days.

Examples:

€ 600/month - € 350/month = € 250/month

€ 250/month : 30 dd = € 8.33/day

€ 600/month - € 300/month = € 300/month

€ 300/month : 30 dd = € 10,00/day

€ 600/month without any deduction

€ 600/month : 30 gg = € 20,00/day

Examples

Students have the obligation to communicate the real length of the mobility period to Edisu.

- In case the student waives the contribution it is necessary to pay back the amount already received. By communicating the eventual waiver of mobility contribution within July the 15th 2024, the student will be excluded in the definitive ranking list on July the 25th 2024, and the first instalment will not be arranged. In this case, no amount needs to be reimbursed to Edisu.
- In case the student is going to anticipate the return, if the amount of the first instalment is higher than the amount due calculated on the real duration of the mobility period, the student loses the right to receive the second instalment, furthermore it will be necessary to pay back the eventual exceeding amount that has been already received.
- The eventual extension of duration of mobility period authorized by University, is not considered for the purpose of a recalculation of the amount; therefore the amount due remains the one displayed in the definitive ranking list.
- In case the University do not recognize credits from the mobility period in the course of study attended in Italy Edisu could revoke the mobility contribution

15. REVOCATION

Whenever a student is subject to a revocation of scholarship for the academic year 2023/24, the student will lose the “winner” status for the international mobility contribution 2024 and will have to reimburse the amount already received.

16. ASSESSMENT OF PERIOD OF STAY

The contribution amount is initially estimated on the basis of the number of months in the agreement. In order to verify the real duration of mobility period, Edisu will check it out with Universities. In case of anticipated return, the amount is recalculated according to the number of days actually spent on mobility. Whenever the amount of the first instalment is higher than the amount due, calculated on the basis of the real period of mobility, the student will lose the right to receive the second instalment and must reimburse to Edisu the eventual exceeding amount already received jointly with the first instalment. For any month of extension in the period of stay, no further contribution is granted.

Whenever the student is going to waive the contribution, or in case the student loses the right to receive the contribution for any reason, it will be necessary to reimburse to Edisu the amount already received.
